SCHUBERT: Piano Trio D. 929 • Sonatensatz

8.555700

The two works for piano trio included here represent extreme points in Schubert's career as a composer. The Sonatensatz, a sonata movement, was written in 1812, while Schubert was still at school. The second of his two completed piano trios, D. 929, dates from 1827 and was played at the first and only public concert of Schubert's compositions during his lifetime. While the Sonatensatz shows promise, at the very least, the Piano Trio in E flat major shows this promise fully realized.
