

ITALY

The Places

In the peace treaty of 1919 the Tyrol was divided into three regions, Southern Tyrol being ceded to Italy. The Eastern Tyrol, Austrian territory, is bounded to the south by the Lienz Dolomites, with the town of Lienz the regional capital. The region is popular with summer visitors, its climate relatively mild, in spite of its height above sea level. There is also a glimpse of the Earth Pyramids at Ritten (Renon) in the Italian Southern Tyrol.

1. Lienz Dolomites, Austria: Church of St Ulrich and Excavations at Lavant
2. Ainet, Austria: Pitschenboden Upland Moor
3. Oberlienz, Austria: Landscape and Watermills
4. Lienz Dolomites, Austria
5. Southern Tyrol, Italy: Oberbozen (Soprabolzano) – Ritten Landscape and Earth Pyramids

The Music

Music for the tour is by Franz Schubert, the son of a schoolmaster who had settled in Vienna. Although his life was chiefly spent in Vienna, he was, nevertheless, able to enjoy the Austrian countryside, during country holidays spent with friends. The beauty of the landscape is reflected in his music and, in particular, in his songs. The tour of the Lienz Dolomites is accompanied by music by Schubert for piano trio, written towards the end of his short life.
