

SVEND ERIK TARP

ORCHESTRAL WORKS VOL. 1

Aarhus Symphony Orchestra · Tobias Ringborg, conductor

Lena Kildahl, flute · Stanislav Pronin, violin

Not known to many today, Svend Erik Tarp (1908-94) was one of the most prominent Danish composers of his time, boasting a large and versatile body of work which more or less has survived in obscurity. This series now sheds new light on a selection of Tarp's orchestral works, opening with some suites, overtures and two small concertos. These are early and charming works that show a development from the elegant and easily accessible towards a more clarified neoclassicist style, which later became one of Tarp's hallmarks.

1 - 9	Suite from the ballet 'The Dethroned Animal Tamer', op. 38 (1942)	12:37
10 - 12	Concertino for flute and orchestra, op. 30 (1937)	10:58
13	Overture to a Comedy no. 1, op. 36 (1940)	6:49
14 - 16	Concertino for violin and orchestra, op. 13 (1932; rev. 1936)	11:39
17 - 20	Suite on Old Danish Folk Songs (1933)	12:37
		TOTAL: 54:44
