

The Subscription Concert Series of the Wiener Philharmoniker from the Golden Hall of the famous Musikverein, are special concerts reserved for subscribers, hence the name. But to become a subscriber, due to the exceptional quality of the concerts and the limited offer, the average waiting time is more than 10 years. With this series, these very special concerts are made available for the first time audiovisually to a wider audience worldwide.

Conductor Herbert Blomstedt, honorary member of the orchestra, is a regular guest at the subscription concerts. For this one he chose Carl Nielsen's Fifth Symphony: "It is full of Danish humour: very serious and at the same time very comic and yet sublime." As a counterpoint to Nielsen's exciting experimentation, Greek star violinist Leonidas Kavakos interprets Johannes Brahms' Violin Concerto, one of the most beloved and frequently performed works in the violin concerto repertoire. "Leonidas Kavakos, together with the Philharmoniker, makes this beautiful work a true celebration." (klassik-begeistert.de)
