

With a spectacular cast and the staging direction of Stefano Poda, this production of Verdi's Nabucco presents the Arena di Verona in a postmodern aesthetic brought to light through a futuristic vision, cosmic symbolism and absolute abstraction. Anna Netrebko gifts the festival's audience with a powerful interpretation of one of Verdi's most demanding roles: her Abigaille is "beautiful, vivacious, magnetic" (La Stampa) and "tackles this formidable challenge with great confidence" (Rivista Musica). Amartuvshin Enkhbat is "a marvellous performer of Nabucco, deeply moving" (Forum Opera). "Pinchas Steinberg conducts the choir and orchestra of the Arena di Verona with verve, power, brio and fire" (Der Merker), a magnificent performance that culminated in a rendition of "Va' pensiero" brimming with pathos and intensity.
