Andres Segovia was entirely self-taught, playing his first public recital at the age of 14. He is credited with elevating the guitar from a folk instrument to the highest levels of the international concert stage. This retrospective of recordings from 1946 and 1949 showcases the maestro's incomparable artistry in a musical panorama ranging from Bach through masters of the 19th and 20th centuries. Several of the works were composed expressly for him. Segovia's 1944 American Recordings can be heard on Naxos 8.111087.
