

Mozart complete!

Seven years of work with Mozart's symphonies come to completion with this monumental release of 45 symphonies, including eight unnumbered youthful works. Strongly influenced by historical performance practice, but with modern instruments and in fantastic sound quality, the Danish National Chamber Orchestra and their Austro-Hungarian chief conductor Adam Fischer make Mozart's music sound more vital and inventive than ever.

"Adam Fischer grabs instant attention"

– GRAMOPHONE

"The performances are as fine as this music has ever received"
