Edward MacDowell

Born in New York, MacDowell studied in Paris and Germany, only returning to America in 1888. He was among the first American composers to win an international reputation.

Songs

In his songs, settings of English, Scottish and German verse, MacDowell continues the German Lieder tradition in which he had been trained in Frankfurt as a pupil of Heymann and Raff. His work and inspiration have much in common with Grieg.

Recorded at Fisher Hall, Santa Rosa, California, from 1st to 3rd August, 1995.
