

Rued Langgaard (1893-1952) is a peculiar, lonely figure in Danish music, but at the same time one of the greatest musical geniuses Denmark has ever known. His music encompasses the whole range from romantic to modernist styles, and is by turn monumental, expressive, and visionary. The bulk of his most output for mixed choir a cappella is recorded on this CD, which also presents a selection of the composer's four-part hymns.
