

This album presents a glimpse of Paul von Klenau's vast collection of music created during the Second World War when he produced works, almost obsessively, until his passing in 1946. The album includes world premiere recordings of Klenau's Violin Concerto, Piano Concerto and Symphony No. 8, showcasing his mastery of both tonal and atonal sonorities, his distinctive introspective style, and his exceptional talent for venturing into uncharted musical realms.

1–3	Violin Concerto (1941)	30:21
4–6	Piano Concerto (1944)	34:30
7–10	Symphony No. 8 (1942)	13:39

Total 78:43
