

PER NØRGÅRD (b. 1932) is one of the most original artists in the cultural life of Denmark. His art constantly creates the idea that the potential of music is far greater than we think, and as a composer he masters all shades of musical expression: from idyll to catastrophe, from dramatic agony to entertaining. The works on this CD certainly furnish proof of his skills, where Nørgård challenges the listener with new ways of transforming his musical visions into fascinating sound.
