

A Light Hour (En Lys Time)

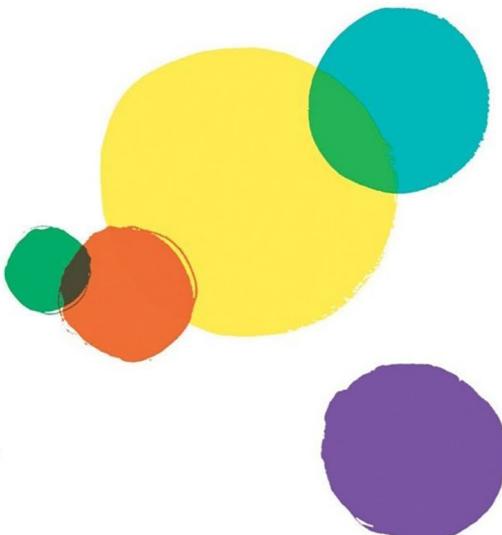

PER NØRGÅRD

PERCURAMA Percussion Ensemble

Gert Mortensen, conductor and arranger

PER NØRGÅRD'S (b. 1932) A Light Hour is a stimulating and vital percussion manifestation. And the title can be taken quite literally: the music lasts an hour, begins with a bright sound and ends in an elevated mood with a collectively improvised 'tone-feast'. Originally A Light Hour was an improvisation work from 1986, but in 2008 Per Nørgård created this new through-composed version. By way of a wealth of instruments the listener is sent on a percussion journey around the world, brilliantly realized by the percussion virtuoso Gert Mortensen and his ensemble Percurama, whose members themselves come from 15 different countries.
