

SØREN NILS EICHBERG

Symphony No. 3 · Morpheus

Danish National Symphony Orchestra

Danish National Concert Choir

Robert Spano, conductor * Joshua Weilerstein, conductor **

This CD marks the conclusion of Søren Nils Eichberg's residency with the Danish National Symphony Orchestra – a fruitful cooperation that has resulted in a handful of large-scale works, born of Eichberg's keen exploration of the orchestra. In place of the thematic formality of its predecessor, Symphony No. 3 looks far out, asking looming existential questions to which there aren't always clear answers. As a counterweight, the even more symphonic 'concerto for orchestra' Morpheus revels in color and effect, bringing a sense of joy and discovery to the music.
