

Emil HARTMANN Chamber Music

Elisabeth ZEUTHEN SCHNEIDER, violin · Nicolas DUPONT, violin
Tony NYS, viola · Justus GRIMM, cello · Daniel BLUMENTHAL, piano

Emil Hartmann (1836-1898) had a heavy family heritage to lift, being the son of one of the true greats in Danish music life, the composer and organist J.P.E. Hartmann. In Denmark, Emil Hartmann had difficulty freeing himself from his father's shadow, but in Germany, things were easier. On this release, Elisabeth Zeuthen Schneider and friends delve into his chamber musical key works, providing the perfect showcase for the romantic flair of Emil Hartmann, making his lines sing beautifully and virtuosic passages dance, and finding intimacy and eloquence at telling moments.

- | | | |
|--------|--|-------|
| 1 - 4 | Piano Quintet in G minor (1865) | 27:11 |
| 5 - 8 | String Quartet in A minor, op. 14 (c. 1872-75) | 18:31 |
| 9 - 12 | String Quartet in C minor, op. 37 | 20:36 |
| 13 | Andante and Allegro in A minor, op. 12 | 9:59 |

Total: 76:17

World premiere recordings

DET KONGELIGE
DANSKE
MUSIKKONSERVATORIUM

8.226183

DACAPÓ

LG 49000

Cover design: Denise Burt, using detail from Tito Pelau, Aquarelle, 18-53 (CC0 1.0)
© & © 2019 Dacapo Records – www.dacapo-records.dk
Made in Germany & distributed by NGL Naxos Global Logistics GmbH