

In this first of a series, the vocal ensemble Music Ficta chronicle 100 years of music at Kronborg Castle, Shakespeare's Elsinore. The Danish kings Frederik II and Christian IV lived at Kronborg during Denmark's most prosperous period, when guests from abroad enriched its musical life. This album features the music of one of these visitors, composer John Dowland, interspersing his Lachrimae with songs and lute music.

Lachrimae, or Seven Tears Figured in Seven Passionate Pavans (1604) interspersed with songs and lute music by John Dowland

Total 61:45

Musica Ficta
Fredrick Bock, lute
Conducted by Bo Holten

8.226227
© & © 2022 Dacapo Records
www.dacapo-records.dk
Made in Germany
Distributed by NGL Naxos Global Logistics GmbH

DACAPO