EVA ØSTERGAARD – flute

The distinctive soundscape of this CD stems from the unique church interior at Løgumkloster in the south of Jutland, Denmark. Beneath the high vaulting, in the cloisters and in the small hidden spaces of the abbey, the flautist Eva Østergaard (b. 1966) has recorded a series of layers of sounds on flutes of all sizes from piccolo to bass. The music was written specifically for Eva, the church and this CD by five Danish composers, all of whom explore the remotest reaches of the instruments and the building.
