

PABLO DE SARASATE

(1844 - 1908)

The Complete Music for Violin & Orchestra

Tianwa Yang, violin • Orquesta Sinfónica de Navarra • Ernest Martínez Izquierdo, conductor

Pablo de Sarasate was one of the most successful violinists in history, reigning supreme as an incandescent musical personality in the days when violinist-composers were a significant feature of concert life. Tianwa Yang has been described as “an unquestioned master of the violin... the rarest of violinists” (American Record Guide), and each volume of these stunning works for violin and orchestra has been received with great international acclaim. Yang has achieved recognition as one of the world’s outstanding instrumentalists with the 2014 Annual Prize of the German Record Critics for her Naxos recordings of the Complete Music for Violin by Sarasate, and she was named the 2015 ECHO Klassik Instrumentalist of the Year (violin) for her Ysaÿe 6 Sonatas for Solo Violin [Naxos 8.572995].

8.572191

SARASATE
Music for Violin
and Orchestra • 1
Zigeunerweisen
Airs espagnols
Viva Sevilla!

Tianwa Yang, Violin
Orquesta Sinfónica
de Navarra
Ernest Martínez
Izquierdo

8.572216

SARASATE
Music for Violin
and Orchestra • 2
Fantasies on Carmen and Roméo et Juliette

Tianwa Yang, Violin
Orquesta Sinfónica
de Navarra
Ernest Martínez
Izquierdo

8.572275

SARASATE
Music for Violin
and Orchestra • 3
Fantasies on
The Magic Flute
and Faust

Tianwa Yang, Violin
Orquesta Sinfónica
de Navarra
Ernest Martínez
Izquierdo

8.572276

SARASATE
Music for Violin
and Orchestra • 4
Fantasies on Don Giovanni and
Der Freischütz

Tianwa Yang, Violin
Orquesta Sinfónica
de Navarra
Ernest Martínez
Izquierdo

“[Yang] has all of this music
under firm control”

“Yang ...challenges the finest violinists” – Fanfare

“full of surprise and delight”

– American Record Guide Critic's Choice

“Urgently recommended.” – Fanfare

“Great end to a series”

pizzicato

8.504046

