

DDD

8.555265

Playing Time
77:32

© 2003 & © 2003 HNH International Ltd.
 Booklet notes in English • Kommentar auf Deutsch
 Notice en français
 Made in E.C.

www.naxos.com

Krzysztof Penderecki's violin concertos represent an expressive and powerful aspect of his music; progressive, yet rooted in late nineteenth century harmony. As the title to the second concerto suggests, musical ideas constantly evolve and transform throughout the works. Although they are both single movement works, frequent changes of mood and tempo take the rôle of traditional movements, consistent with Penderecki's maxim that old forms must be revived in order to create new music.

Krzysztof
PENDERECKI
 (b.1933)

Orchestral Works Volume 4

1 Concerto for Violin and Orchestra No. 1 39:16

2 'Metamorphosen' Concerto for
 Violin and Orchestra No. 2 38:16

Konstanty Kulka, Violin (1) • Chee-Yun, Violin (2)
 Polish National Radio Symphony Orchestra (Katowice) • Antoni Wit

Sponsored by Polish Ministry of Culture and National Heritage

Recorded at the Grzegorz Fitelberg Concert Hall, Katowice, Poland, from 22nd to 26th May, 2000

Producer, Engineer & Editor: Beata Jankowska • Booklet Notes: Richard Whitehouse
 Cover Painting: Trójkąt (A Triangle), pastel, 1996 by Stasys Eidrigevičius (b.1949) (by kind permission)