

In addition to composing a prolific variety of orchestral and instrumental music, Joaquín Rodrigo was a virtuoso pianist. His recitals included both his own compositions and representative selections of Spanish keyboard masters from the 16th century onwards. This second and final volume of Artur Pizarro's recording of the complete solo piano music for Naxos includes miniatures written for 'small hands', including those of his daughter Cecilia, the virtuosic Sonatas de Castilla, the Suite para piano, which combines ancient dance forms with elements of contemporary complexity, and Tres Evocaciones, a tribute to the beautiful Andalusian city of Seville. Volume 1 is available on Naxos 8.557272.
