

An Introduction to ...

RAVEL Boléro & Ma Mère L'oye

written and narrated by Jeremy Siepmann

The famous Boléro and the enchanting Mother Goose Suite give us Ravel the orchestral sorceror at the peak of his unsurpassed powers. From the fierce vitality of sun-baked Spain to the most poignant evocations of childhood and innocence, he captures the immediacy of experience as we feel it. Yet he saw himself as an artisan, not an artist, and a discoverer rather than a composer. Behind his every work was a craftsman of astonishing skill. So astonishing that we can examine his artistic workshop in the minutest detail without dispelling any of the magic.
