

'As a follow-up to the success of the first volume of Music for Flute and Percussion (Naxos 8.557782), and the immense pleasure I have experienced in my concerts for flute and percussion, I have urged a number of composers to write for this marvellous combination,' notes Belgian virtuoso flautist Marc Grauwels. 'He deserves high praise for introducing us to great music, and he always plays with passion and precision' (American Record Guide). Grauwels and his accomplished colleagues continue their foray into new sonic realms with this second volume.
