

This programme brings together four works for piano and orchestra by composers best known from the fields of jazz, popular song and progressive rock. Neil Sedaka's Manhattan Intermezzo explores the New York of today and yesterday with its melting pot of nationalities. Keith Emerson is best known as a founding member of Emerson Lake & Palmer. His remarkably inventive semi-autobiographical Piano Concerto No. 1 fuses his classical training with jazz. Duke Ellington's sublime New World a-Comin' is a visualisation of improved conditions for black people in America, while the rarely heard original version of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue represents the quintessential style of New York City in the Roaring Twenties.

MANHATTAN INTERMEZZO

American and British Works for Piano and Orchestra

- |   |                                                                                                          |              |
|---|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1 | Neil Sedaka (b. 1939): Manhattan Intermezzo (2008)(orch. Lee Holdridge (b. 1944))             | 18:10 |
|   | Keith Emerson (b. 1944): Piano Concerto No. 1 (1976)(co-orch. John Mayer (1930-2004))         | 19:51 |
| 2 | I. Allegro gioioso                                                                                | 9:46  |
| 3 | II. Andante molto cantabile                                                                       | 2:27  |
| 4 | III. Toccata con fuoco                                                                            | 7:38  |
| 5 | Duke Ellington (1899-1974): New World a-Comin' (1943)*(arr. and ed. Maurice Peress (b. 1930)) | 13:34 |
| 6 | George Gershwin (1898-1937): Rhapsody in Blue (1924)*(orch. Ferde Grofé (1892-1972))          | 17:44 |

*Benjamin Wesner, Clarinet

Jeffrey Biegel, Piano

Brown University Orchestra • Paul Phillips

Funding for this recording was generously provided by Ligia Wiegand and Dr Robert Schiff, with additional support from Brown University, Neil Sedaka and Naxos.

Recorded in Sayles Hall at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, New York, on 12th October, 2014 [6], 18th October, 2014 [1], 18th and 19th October, 2014 [2-4], and 20th November, 2014 [5]

Producers: Paul Phillips, Jeffrey Biegel and Joseph Patrych • Engineer and editor: James LeGrand

Publishers: Neil Sedaka (track 1); Leadchoice, Ltd. (track 2-4); G. Schirmer, Inc. (track 5);

Warner Brothers (track 6) • Booklet notes: Paul Phillips • Cover: Grafix132

DDD

8.573490

Playing Time
69:19

© & © 2016 Naxos Rights US, Inc.
Booklet notes in English
Made in Germany
www.naxos.com