

Wolfgang Amadeus MOZART (1756–1791)

Mozart was a childhood prodigy, composing from the age of five and performing at royal courts by the age of 10, becoming famous throughout Europe. As an immensely influential composer, his music sits at the very centre of Western musical culture and today casts its spell over the hearts and minds of music lovers throughout the world. This substantial collection presents the cream of Mozart's imperishable contribution to music through his piano concertos, symphonies, chamber music, operas and choral works.
