

BIS-2144 | CD

COPENHAGEN RECITAL

|                                                                |           |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| FOUR RUSSIAN SONGS                                             | 10'10     |
| Glinka: Elegy · Dargomyzhsky: I Am Sad                         |           |
| Tchaikovsky: In the Din of the Ball; None but the Lonely Heart |           |
| ALEXEI LEBEDEV (1924–93)                                       |           |
| Concert Allegro                                                | 6'42      |
| GEORG PHILIPP TELEMANN (1681–1767)                             |           |
| Sonata in F minor, TWV 41:F1                                   | 9'24      |
| ROBERT SCHUMANN (1810–56)                                      |           |
| Adagio and Allegro, Op. 70                                     | 8'05      |
| DANIEL SCHNYDER (b. 1961)                                      |           |
| Winter 1941                                                    | 2'09      |
| SØREN HYLDGAARD (b. 1962)                                      |           |
| Concerto Borealis                                              | 14'38     |
| THORA BORCH (1832–1923)                                        |           |
| The Sky Darkens                                                | 5'31      |
|                                                                | TT: 58'40 |

STEFAN SCHULZ bass trombone
SAORI TOMIDOKORO piano

Recording producer and sound engineer: Ingo Petry

DDD

© & © 2014, BIS Records AB, Sweden

Recorded at a public concert on 5th November 2012
at Studie 4, DR Koncerthuset, Copenhagen

MADE IN THE EU

BIS-2144 COPENHAGEN RECITAL · STEFAN SCHULZ, BASS TROMBONE

BIS-2144 COPENHAGEN RECITAL · STEFAN SCHULZ, BASS TROMBONE