VITTORIO BRESCIANI piano

"When, in 1838, Liszt gave a collection of twelve piano transcriptions of Schubert Lieder to a Viennese publisher, (...) he was casting the dice in a complex bet full of significance, and in which the risk of failure, (...) was certainly greater than any possibility of success. (...) he (...) emerged victorious however: these cycles of Lieder remain masterpieces and (...) provided (...) the preparatory workshop the results of which we find later in Liszt's original creations".
