The vocal ensemble Musica Contexta takes us on a journey of musical Rome on a February day at the end of the sixteenth century. Walking through the streets of the city at Candlemas, the Day of Purification, at each church along the way we stop and listen to a piece of music. In the Catholic Church, this day celebrates the Purification of Mary and the official presentation of Christ at the Temple forty days after his birth. We hear music by three composers who at different times during the century worked at the Sistine Chapel. Coming from different national backgrounds, they helped to bring a variety of influences to the music of the Italian Renaissance.
