Produced by Chandos Records in association with Gallagher Ltd.

Gallagher Ltd, the parent of Benson & Hedges Ltd, sponsors a series of eight Ulster Orchestra concerts each year in Northern Ireland. These concerts feature many distinguished conductors and soloists in a variety of classical, romantic and modern works. The company was given an award in 1981 from the Association of Business Sponsorship of the Arts and the Daily Telegraph for its sponsorship of the Ulster Orchestra.

Gallagher is the biggest private sector employer in Northern Ireland and this sponsorship - together with its support for this recording - demonstrates its commitment to the cultural life of the province.
