inscape n. – 1. the essential, distinctive, and revelatory quality of a thing

2. a chamber orchestra

aggregate n. – a whole formed by combining several (typically disparate) elements

American Aggregate, explores the varied sounds of American music in the twenty-first century. From the mechanized world of our cities, to the natural beauty of our landscapes, from the sounds of jazz and rock, to indigenous folk music, the picture of contemporary classical music is varied.

The works contained on this album reflect American culture, landscape, and environment as expressed through the voices of seven distinct young composers.
