A spellbinding album of songs of love and loss, nature and nurture, war and peace, spiritual and temporal, refracted through the linguistic prism of the Gaelic language and soul. Most of all they are songs of present and future.

Clàr a bheò-ghlacas le òrain mu ghaol is caoidh, àrainneachd is àrach, cogadh is sith, spiorad is domhan. Is iad gu seachd àraid òrain ar linne fhèin agus an àm ri teachd.

1. Seinn, Horo, Seinn (Sing!) - 4:55

We'll sing your songs of love and glory,
but our own hearts' music too.

2. Óran do dh'lain Dòmhnaillach

(Song for John MacDonald) - 5:54

Fallen, far from friends, family and home.

3. Mise Fhuair (I Have Won the Apple) - 3:29

You are the apple that brought me sweetness beyond hope.

4. Sith na Coille (Forest's Peace) - 5:54

The path matters as much as the destination.

5. Eadar-Thir (Between-Land) - 3:11

Between the two: edge of creation and heart of the world.

6. Dàn Ùr do Fhlòraidh NicNill

(A New Song for Flora MacNeil) - 3:58

How we should pick life's delicate flowers - carefully.

7. Taigh an Uillt - 3:33

Beneath Cruachan's shelter, find peace, kindness and love.

8. Iain Againn Fhin (Our Own John) - 3:57

The little bullet's whistle, with your destiny in its lead.

9. Gràdh Geal Mo Chridhe (My True Love) - 5:03

It was you gave me my place, anchor and haven.

10. Air Leathad Slèibhe (On a Hill-land Slope) - 4:40

The sun rising, my heart rising, the dew rising from grass and tree.

11. Grioglachan (Constellation) - 4:35

Midnight: a new star in the firmament, gentle in its flickering.
