THE STORY OF MOZART (1756-1791)

DID YOU KNOW...

Mozart is acknowledged as the most naturally gifted genius the world of music has ever known.

At age 4 he learned to play the harpsichord; a year later he was already composing.

Mozart spent about half of his short life on tour, first with his family—his sister also performed at the keyboard—then by himself.

Although they recognized him as a brilliant performer, audiences did not appreciate his music.

He died while only 35 and was buried in an unmarked pauper's grave.
