

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Adventures of Brigadier Gerard

Read by Rupert Degas

With a horse between his thighs and a weapon in his grip, the dashing Brigadier Etienne Gerard, Colonel of the Hussars of Conflans, gallops through the Napoleonic campaigns on secret missions for his beloved Emperor and his country. He encounters danger and hair-breadth escapes but never loses his bravado, his eye for a pretty girl, his boastfulness or his enormous vanity. Gerard is Conan Doyle's most lovable character. At times hilarious, at times touching, these stories are amongst Conan Doyle's most popular.

Rupert Degas has read a substantial list of books for Naxos AudioBooks, notably Murakami's A Wild Sheep Chase and The Wind-up Bird Chronicle, Kafka's The Trial, Cormac McCarthy's The Road and Tom McNab's Flanagan's Run.
