The Incredible Adventures of Professor Branestawm

Read by Martin Jarvis

Eccentric, absent-minded inventor Professor Branestawm embarks on a series of adventures with his friend Colonel Dedshott. Various machines are invented: a time travel-machine, a device to capture and tie up burglars, and a spring-cleaning machine. Inevitably, something goes wrong and Professor Branestawm is again in a pickle, exasperating his housekeeper Mrs Flittersnoop and delighting us.

Martin Jarvis is consistently described in the press as 'King of Audio' and 'Genius of Spoken Word'. His BBC Just William recordings are international bestsellers and other titles he has read for Naxos AudioBooks include Metamorphosis and The Wind in the Willows.
