

Marcel Proust

Time Regained

New translation by David Whiting

Read by Neville Jason

Remembrance of Things Past is one of the monuments of 20th-century literature. Neville Jason's unabridged recording of the work runs to 150 hours.

Time Regained is the final volume. Lost in the blacked-out streets of Paris during the First World War, Marcel stumbles into a brothel and accidentally witnesses a shocking scene involving the Baron de Charlus. Later, at a reception given by the Prince de Guermantes, his meditations on the passage of time lead to his determination to embark on his life's work at last.

Neville Jason trained at RADA, where he was awarded the diction prize by Sir John Gielgud. He has been a member of the BBC Radio Drama Company three times, and may be heard in radio plays, documentaries and arts programmes. For Naxos AudioBooks his readings include Vasari's Lives of the Great Artists, Freud, War and Peace, Gulliver's Travels, Far From the Madding Crowd, Favourite Essays, The Once and Future King, Evgenii Onegin, Wessex Tales and Remembrance of Things Past, both unabridged and abridged. He won AudioFile awards for The Captive, Time Regained, The Once and Future King and War and Peace.
