The Finest Nonsense

— OF —

EDWARD LEAR

Read by Sir Derek Jacobi

Nearly 150 years since his poetry was first published, Lear's nonsense rhymes are still popular today. In this lively and colourful audiobook recording, Derek Jacobi reads Lear's most famous poems and most fantastic creations, including The Owl and the Pussy-Cat, The Daddy Long-Legs and the Fly, The Jumblies, The Dong with the Luminous Nose and a collection of assorted limericks.

Sir Derek Jacobi is known to younger audiences through his work on the BBC series In the Night Garden and the films Nanny McPhee and Cinderella. He is one of Britain's leading actors, having made his mark on stage, film and television, as well as audiobook.
