DON JUAN

Read by Jonathan Keeble

"O Love! O Glory! what are ye who fly Around us ever, rarely to alight?"

Lord Byron's satirical take on the legend of Don Juan is a moving and witty poem that sees the young hero in a reversal of roles. Juan sheds his image as a womaniser and instead becomes the victim of circumstance as he is relentlessly pursued by every woman he meets. Comprising seventeen cantos of rhyming iambic pentameter, the poem is a crisp and accessible meditation on the madness of the world.

Jonathan Keeble combines his audio work with a busy theatre and TV career. His voice work ranges from the audio guide for the Sistine Chapel to voicing the Angel of Death in the film Hellboy 2. An award-winning reader, Jonathan has featured in over 500 radio plays for the BBC, from Shakespeare to Sherlock Holmes, and has recorded over 100 audiobooks.
