

Little Men

LOUISA MAY ALCOTT

Read by Liza Ross

The March sisters are among the most beloved characters in children's literature, and Little Men picks up the story of fiery, headstrong Jo where Good Wives left off. Intelligent, funny, perceptive and genuinely touching, the novel is set at a rather unusual boarding school run by Jo and her husband, where the pupils are encouraged to pillow fight and keep pets. When the penniless but talented orphan Nat Blake shows up on her doorstep, Jo takes him in, and his arrival sets in motion a chain of events that will affect all their lives.

Liza Ross is an award-winning audiobook reader and has recorded many books for Naxos. Her extensive work as a voice artist also includes animation, computer games, voice-overs and BBC Radio Drama. Her film work includes The Current War, 55 Steps, Florence Foster Jenkins, Return to the Secret Garden and Batman. She has made frequent TV and theatre appearances.

NAXOS
AudioBooks
JUNIOR CLASSICS

ABRIDGED

© 2017 Naxos AudioBooks
Artwork © 2017 Naxos AudioBooks
Made in Austria

Total time:
3:22:29

3 CDs
NA0268

Visit us online at naxosaudiobooks.com