J.M. Barrie
PETER PAN

Read by Samuel West

'I'm youth, I'm joy... I'm a little bird that has broken out of the egg.'

The story of the little boy who refused to grow up has captured the imagination of generations of children (and the adults they grew into) since its publication in 1904.

Peter Pan flies in through the bedroom window one night and teaches Wendy, John and Michael to fly. He lures them away from their home and parents and takes them away to endless adventures in the magical Neverland, where they meet the wicked Captain Hook and a host of other characters.

Funny, charming, touching and incisively observant as to the ways of children and adults, Peter Pan is an unforgettable story.

Samuel West was widely praised for his performance as Leonard Bast in the Merchant Ivory film, Howard's End. Other film credits include Carrington and Reunion, and he has been seen on TV in Persuasion and Heavy Weather. Theatrical roles have included Valentine in Arcadia and Algernon in The Importance of Being Earnest. He also features on Naxos AudioBooks' Great Narrative Poems of the Romantic Age.
