Whale Nation

Read by Heathcote Williams
with Harry Burton and Caroline Webster

*'Leviathan...
Upon earth there is not his like,
who is made without fear.
Will he speak soft words unto thee?' Job 41*

Whale Nation is a hymn to the beauty, intelligence and majesty of the largest mammal on earth. A 'green classic' read with natural resonance by its author, it rarely fails to strike a chord in the hearts of those concerned with the abuse of our planet. On the second CD is a fascinating account of whale history. Sensitively underscored with classical music.

Heathcote Williams As poet, playwright and actor, Heathcote Williams has made a significant contribution to many fields. He is best known for his extended poems on environmental subjects, Whale Nation (1988); Falling for a Dolphin (1988); Sacred Elephant (1989) and Autogeddon (1991). But his plays have also won acclaim notably AC/DC produced at London's Royal Court, and Hancock's Last Half Hour. As an actor he has been equally versatile – among his most memorable roles was Prospero in Derek Jarman's film of The Tempest.
