THE ENCHANTED CASTLE

Read by Joanna Page

Three children – Jerry (bossy), Jimmy (hungry) and Kathleen (sensible) – find themselves standing in front of a bejewelled princess in the garden of an enchanted castle. It is the first day of their summer holidays. Is she really a princess? And if she isn't, what about her ring which makes the wearer invisible? This ring, combined with the children's appetite for exploring, sparks a tale full of vivid adventures and extraordinary characters. With 'ugly-wugglies' on the loose, statues alive in the moonlight and crimes needing to be solved, there is never a dull moment. Imagination is powerful; magic is possible.

Since graduating from RADA Joanna Page has worked throughout film, television and theatre. Her film roles include Judy in Richard Curtis's Love Actually, Mike Figgis's Miss Julie, From Hell and Very Annie Mary. Jo has worked extensively in London theatre, most recently in What the Butler Saw at Hampstead, which then transferred to the West End, as well as the Almeida, and the National – and Aladdin at the Old Vic. Jo's television work includes David Copperfield, To the Ends of the Earth, Gideons Daughter, Ready When You Are Mr McGill, The Lost World and Gavin and Stacey. She is the proud owner of a beautiful Jack Russell called Daisy.
