THE SWORD IN THE STONE

Read by Neville Jason

Kay and his foster-brother (known as the Wart) are living in Sir Ector's glorious castle amid the wild and beautiful Forest Sauvage. They are given a tutor – the magician Merlyn. And so begins one of the most inventive and charming retellings of the Arthurian legend, The Sword in the Stone.

Through a series of adventures that involve being turned into animals and a meeting with the real Robin Hood, Merlyn instructs his young charges in the ways of the world, and imparts to them a broader wisdom too. One of them will need it – the King has died leaving no heir, and a rightful one must be found by pulling a sword from an anvil resting on a stone...

Neville Jason trained at RADA where he was awarded the Diction Prize by Sir John Gielgud. He has worked with the English Stage Co., the Old Vic Company and the RSC as well as in films, TV and musicals. He is frequently heard on radio. As well as Remembrance of Things Past, he also reads Tolstoy's War and Peace, The Life and Works of Marcel Proust, Far from the Madding Crowd, Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire and Swift's Gulliver's Travels and has directed Hamlet and A Midsummer Night's Dream for Naxos AudioBooks.
