Favourite Essays

An Anthology

Read by Neville Jason

Favourite Essays is a collection of some of the best-known essays in the English language. Part of an essay's charm is that it can be about almost anything, and this selection spans a wide variety of subjects both serious and light-hearted, ranging from Swift's scorching satire on poverty in Ireland to G.K. Chesterton's witty defence of lying in bed. Including pieces by the great exponents of the genre, these essays deserve a place in the library of every lover of literature.

Neville Jason trained at RADA where he was awarded the Diction Prize by Sir John Gielgud. For Naxos AudioBooks he has read War and Peace, The Life and Works of Marcel Proust, Remembrance of Things Past, The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire and The Once and Future King.
