Sholem Aleichem

Tevye the Milkman

Read by Neville Jason

Here are the stories by the great Yiddish author Sholem Aleichem (known as 'the Jewish Mark Twain') that inspired the musical Fiddler on the Roof. The loveable Tevye struggles heroically through life, never losing his sense of humour. Battling with poverty, authority or his rebellious daughters, he might occasionally put in a complaint to the Almighty but he never loses the faith that sustains him. Funny, touching and deeply moving, these tales are an affirmation of the irrepressible courage of the human spirit.

Neville Jason trained at RADA where he was awarded the Diction Prize by Sir John Gielgud. He has worked with the English Stage Co., the Old Vic Company and the RSC as well as in films, TV and musicals. He is frequently heard on radio. As well as The Remembrance of Things Past, he also reads War and Peace, Far from the Madding Crowd, The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, Gulliver's Travels and The Once and Future King for Naxos AudioBooks.
