Elizabeth Gaskell North And South

Read by Clare Wille

When Margaret Hale moves with her parents from the comfort of the south of England to the industrial north, she is at first repulsed by what she sees; and then when she discovers the conditions under which the workers are forced to live, she is outraged. But this throws her into direct conflict with the powerful young mill-owner, John Thornton.

Using personal passions to explore deep social divisions, North and South is a great romance – and one of Elizabeth Gaskell's finest works.

Clare Wille has been working as an actress and voiceover artist since graduating from RADA in 1997. She has read Cranford and Cotillion for Naxos AudioBooks.
