MARK SLOUKA

The Visible World

Read by Glen McCready

A powerfully romantic novel about a son's attempt to understand his mother's past, which leads him to a tragic love affair and the heroic story of the assassination of a high-ranking Nazi by the Czech resistance. The narrator, the American-born son of Czech immigrants living in New York, grows up in an atmosphere haunted by fragments of a past he cannot understand. As an adult, he travels to Prague, hoping to learn about a love affair between his mother and a member of the resistance named Tomáš. Ultimately unable to complete his knowledge of the past, he imagines not only the ending of their story but the beginning of his own.

Glen McCready trained at The Webber Douglas Academy. He has narrated numerous audiobooks including The Lost World by Arthur Conan Doyle, The Woman in White by Wilkie Collins and The Children of the New Forest by Frederick Marryat for Naxos AudioBooks, as well as The Finishing School by Muriel Spark and many others.
