F. Scott Fitzgerald

Tender is the Night

Read by Trevor White

It is 1925, and Richard Diver is the high priest of the good life on the white sands of the French Riviera. The Beautiful People – film stars, socialites, aristocrats – gather eagerly and bitchily around him and his wife Nicole. Beneath the breathtaking glamour, however, is a world of pain, and there is at the core of their lives a brittle hollowness.

Beautiful, powerful and tragic, Tender is the Night is one of the great works of American fiction.

Trevor White's film and television credits include Die Another Day, House of Saddam, Bonekickers, The Path to 9/11, Judge John Deed, and The Line of Beauty. His work in audiobooks and for BBC Radio include A Million Little Pieces, Revolutionary Road, The Great Gatsby and Catch-22.
