

Mark Twain
The Adventures
of Huckleberry Finn

Read by Garrick Hagon

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn is the comic masterpiece of Samuel Langhorne Clemens who trained as a river-boat pilot (from which experience he took his pen-name, Mark Twain). His most famous book describes a boy's journey down the Mississippi aboard a raft with the runaway black slave Jim. Their escapades in the Deep South before the American Civil War are a joy in themselves but they also direct a searching light on a society where slavery and prejudice are taken for granted and civilisation is hypocritical and corrupt.

Garrick Hagon has appeared in many films including Batman, Star Wars, Cry Freedom, Anthony and Cleopatra, and Fatherland. His television credits include A Perfect Spy, The Nightmare Years, Henry V, The Chief and Love Hurts. On London's West End he played Chris Keller in All My Sons, and he is a frequent story reader for the BBC. He also reads The Sea-Wolf, The Call of the Wild and Classic American Poetry for Naxos AudioBooks.
