War and Peace is one of the greatest monuments in world literature. Set against the dramatic backdrop of the Napoleonic Wars, it examines the relationship between the individual and the relentless march of history. Here are the universal themes of love and hate, ambition and despair, youth and age, expressed with a swirling vitality which makes the book as accessible today as it was when it was first published in 1869. In addition it is, famously, one of the longest books in Western literature and therefore a remarkable challenge for any reader.

Neville Jason is best known for his exceptional recording of Proust's Remembrance of Things Past, one of many classics he has read for Naxos AudioBooks. His range extends from Swift's Gulliver's Travels to Vasari's Lives of the Artists – and includes an abridged version of War and Peace. He has also directed Hamlet and other Shakespeare recordings for Naxos AudioBooks.
