Read by Paul Slack

One of the most important novels of the 20th century, Sons and Lovers tells the story of the Morels, a Nottinghamshire mining family. At its heart is the relationship between Paul and his mother, and the conflict between them as he grows towards maturity and independence.

Powerful, ground-breaking and moving, it is told with an honesty that was shocking when it was first published, and is still startling. It is Lawrence's autobiographical masterpiece of life in a working-class town, of human understanding, and of relationships – between man and woman, mother and child, sons and lovers.

Paul Slack originally trained as a bricklayer in his native Nottinghamshire. He has just completed work on the feature film Lecture 21 written and directed by Alessandro Barecco. Paul has worked extensively in theatre most notably in the West End, at the West Yorkshire Playhouse, Bristol Old Vic, English Touring Theatre, the RSC and the Hammersmith Lyric.
