

The three opéras-comiques in this set epitomise the glamour, vivacity and zest of the quintessentially French genre and are among their composers' most admired works. Adolphe Adam's Le Postillon de Lonjumeau exudes rococo Parisian charm, Reynaldo Hahn's elegant and refined Ciboulette is one of the last masterpieces of French operetta, and Jacques Offenbach's La Périochole is an opéra-bouffe of scintillating colour and vivacious dances. These acclaimed productions from the famous stage of the Opéra Comique in Paris feature world-class performers, superb directors, and, in the Adam, costumes by the iconic French fashion designer, Christian Lacroix.
