

Matthew Martin's fresh and vibrant style has established him as one of today's leading sacred choral composers. Here the renowned Choir of Magdalen College, Oxford perform a selection of his works, celebrating liturgical music in all its variety; from the reticent carol Dormi, Jesu! and the imposing St John's College Service to settings of the Mass, motets and anthems, including the award-winning In the year that King Uzziah died.

MATTHEW MARTIN b.1976

Jubilate Deo

sacred choral works

1	Jubilate Deo*	3.45	11	Justorum animae	2.32
2	Festival Anthem: In the year that King Uzziah died (I saw the Lord)	10.58	12	Dormi, Jesu!*	3.17
3	Christe redemptor omnium	4.12	13	A Hymn of St Ambrose (Aurora lucis rutilat)*	3.58
4-7	Chester Missa Brevis	12.53	14-17	Short Mass of St Dominic*	9.18
8	Te lucis ante terminum*	3.16	18	A Song of the New Jerusalem*	4.53
9-10	St John's College Service*	8.25	19	Laudate Dominum*	3.44

71.16

Choir of Magdalen College, Oxford
 Stephen Farr organ
 Daniel Hyde director

*World premiere recordings

